

CALGARY ASSOCIATION OF LIFELONG LEARNERS (CALL)

READING NONFICTION BOOK LIST

2023-2024

Kate Beaton, Ducks: Two Years in the Oil Sands. Drawn & Quarterly, 2022. (Format—graphic memoir.) 448 pp.

Peter Brooks, Seduced by Story: The Use and Abuse of Narrative. New York Review Books, 2022. 175 pp.

Amitav Ghosh, The Nutmeg's Curse: Parables for a Planet in Crisis. Univ. of Chicago Press, 2021. 336 pp.

Tomson Highway, Laughing with the Trickster: On Sex, Death, and Accordions. (Series: CBC Massey Lectures.) House of Anansi Press, 2022. 224 pp.

Kati Marton, The Chancellor: The Remarkable Odyssey of Angela Merkel. Simon & Schuster, 2021. 344 pp.

Andrew Stobo Sniderman & Douglas Sanderson, Valley of the Birdtail: An Indian Reservation, a White Town, and the Road to Reconciliation. Harper Collins, 2022. 384 pp.

Marion Turner, The Wife of Bath: A Biography. Princeton University Press, 2023. 336 pp.

Ed Yong, An Immense World: How Animal Senses Reveal the Hidden Realms Around Us. Knopf Canada, 2022. 464 pp.

NOTE: This list is alphabetical. Actual reading order over the term is decided by members of the group.